

Let's get married

HOTEL
Munich

The most wonderful day

Have you always dreamt of a wedding with Bavarian charm?

Traditional yet laid back? Romantic and contemporary? No matter whether your celebration is small and exclusive or on a large scale, we will do our utmost to provide the perfect setting for your big day.

As you dress in your finery amidst the scent of roses, celebrate your nuptials in the adjacent Mariahilf Church and dance the last dance of the night in each other's arms, we will be there to support and work behind the scenes to keep everything running smoothly.

As we love weddings and aim to give each one its own signature style, we have come up with several exclusive ideas for you and your guests to look forward to, making your wedding day an unforgettable, one-off experience.

So say "I do" to the most wonderful day of your life and see for yourself ...

Here. Now. Forever.

In the heart of the city with a babbling brook flowing merrily by – a magical place that’s ideal for your special day: Mariahilfplatz, where the Auer Dult, a popular old-time fair, is held several times a year.

Just a few short steps away from Marias Platzl Hotel, your wedding location, you can tie the knot in the parish church of Mariahilf, the landmark of the historic district of Au. Choose from a Catholic or ecumenical service. The church is not only an architectural gem that served as a model for Cologne Cathedral, but its glockenspiel is also of great significance: its tower contains the second-largest carillon in Germany, ringing out across the hustle and bustle of the city.

And to make it even more special: you can choose the melody that will sound out over old Munich on your big day as you make your way to the church with your guests.

A last deep breath as a single person

The time just before the wedding can be nerve-wracking.

While you are mentally preparing yourself to take that huge step, we will arrange a small reception for the wedding party as it arrives, either in the idyllic parish garden (an insider tip) or right in front of the church gates.

We will ride up on our Platzl bike, the basket full to the brim with refreshing drinks. Anyone in need of a quick bite will love our nifty pretzel bar filled with traditional and speciality versions of these much-loved Bavarian baked goods.

As the literal highlight for your church ceremony, we will present you with a handmade wedding candle.

And then it's time to get serious.

Just married

The deed is done.
We will now welcome
you to your first reception
as a married couple!

Your guests are waiting to offer their congratulations and raise a glass to you as you begin the next chapter of your life. Our rustic garden has been transformed into a charming marketplace just for you, with all kinds of stalls where we will serve you and your guests seasonal aperitives, such as the “Spatzl”, the fruity “Berry Tale” or our very own “Fraisini”. These are accompanied by a selection of delicacies, such as summery sorbets, sophisticated canapés or, during the cold months, steaming baked apples.

Perhaps you’d like to start your celebration with a special ritual. You and your guests could come up with some good wishes for your brand-new married life. We will provide rose leaves for you to write them on, which you can then throw into the Auer Mühlbach, one of the last remaining streams in Munich, to set you on a symbolic path to a happy future. Congratulations!

A toast to your union

For the ultimate Bavarian touch,
why not delight everyone
with an original verse composed especially for you and your wedding guests?

We will provide the setting for a great performance, from a stage to professional lighting and sound technology.

Our team will be on hand to help your guests quench their thirst and drink to your health: depending on whether your style is elegant or laid back, we will serve drinks at the table or set up a variety of self-service stands. How about a “fizzy” bar with seasonal homemade lemonade or our Ayinger beer tapped straight from a large wooden barrel?

Add salt to the soup

... that's your job on your wedding day!

According to Bavarian tradition, the bride goes into the kitchen with her mother and the groom's mother to season the soup to her taste.

The rest of the food will, of course, be planned in consultation with you before the big day. No matter whether you prefer a formal sit-down meal or the easy-going vibe of a buffet, we will serve it up for you – either in our Kreszenz<sup>4</sup> venue or our rustic outdoor garden.

Or what about suckling pig cooked on a wood-burning barbeque – with sides of dumplings and cabbage? If that's your style, you're sure to like the idea of a large pan of homemade "Kaiserschmarrn" shredded pancake, too.

Yum — the taste of love...

Share a little slice of happiness

While we prepare the dance floor in our Kreszenz<sup>4</sup>, your guests will join you for the culinary highlight of the day: the traditional cutting of the wedding cake. It is considered lucky if every guest eats at least a small piece of it!

And for those with a sweet tooth, we've got a few more treats in store. How about little streusel cakes made to traditional recipes, fruit dipped in chocolate, or something cold from the old-style ice-cream stand?

You're the only one for me

From a traditional Bavarian wedding band or DJ to classic waltzes or “disco foxtrot”, the dancefloor and technical equipment available in our Kreszenz<sup>4</sup> provide all you need to really let your hair down.

And, since dancing will probably bring on a thirst, you and your new spouse will start by tapping a barrel of beer together. But not just any old beer: your very own wedding beer, which we will provide in bottles with your names on, as a special gift and memento for your guests.

So slip the leather brewer's apron over your beautiful wedding outfit and ... let's get this party started!

Mysterious customs

... and a trayful of happiness.

Just before midnight, the tension starts to mount: who is going to catch the bridal bouquet? How much money has been raised by auctioning the veil? Which ritual will you choose to end the evening? You don't have to decide right away.

Since love gives you an appetite, especially when it's getting late, we will bring out trays full of Bavarian delicacies. Help yourself to bread rolls filled with pulled ox meat, tartar on bread or a savoury soup ... and wash it down with one last smooth, refreshing wedding beer before you bring the evening to a close on the dot of midnight with one last dance. After all, you should always leave them wanting more.
